31 May 2024

For matters of Infrastructure and Finance, Department of Treasury.
To the Executive Director of: Richard Watson.

Greetings Theresa Pederson: Executive Assistant.

1. I pray this communication finds you well.
2. Further to our phone call today Theresa; regarding my request for a meeting with Richard Watson;
3. Myself, and my colleague Denise Chadwick hold the formal roles of Co-Executive Trustee for Humanity: Terra Australis.
4. The role is actually a global role. But we will keep matters local and National. Thank you.
5. Therefore, and respectfully, we require a meeting with Treasury please regarding business models and allocation of resources.

6. Amanda Seneno will also attend this meeting, as scribe.
7. We are in a great time of change and one must stay abreast of developments in the landscape as there are many lives involved in all systems management.
8. As per our conversation, if you could assign an appointment time for us at first possible availability that would be greatly appreciated.
9. There are numerous pressing matters on the table.
10. Please be assured, we are exceptionally nice People.
11. We have no intent for any type of injury in any way, either delivered by us, or received by us.
12. As I said today, there is an extraordinary amount of time wasting that goes on when we attempt to interface with the Australian Government.
13. I am out of patience for that standard at this stage.
14. Please ensure our meeting is facilitated in Peace and Grace as we discuss Resource Management for Humanity on Terra Australis.
15. Please be assured, there is only win/win matters on the table.
16. In thanks and gratitude.
17. I look forward to your return email with a time made available.
