8. The communications requested contact to be made via the email address provided, or delivered to the Scarborough Police Station.
9. As the first deadline of 12pm 30.9.2022 expired, without communication being made, a second date of 4.10.22, 12pm was offered, so that matters may be advanced.
10. Whilst space was created to negotiate time and place of a required meeting, it is expected that the deadline for acknowledgment of communications would be met, as a natural standard of respect and business conduct.
11. As at 12.10pm, on 4.10.22, no email communication had been received.
12. And by the Scarborough Police station, no communications have been received.
13. Thus, this 3rd Notice; to establish contact and protocol, is initiated.
14. The Office of Police Commissioner is beholden to make contact please with The People, who employ this sector and pay this sector, so that important matters can be brought to the table for discussion and advancement.
15. Please make contact by 12pm 7.10.2022, as per the email provided :
