Greetings SAPOL

RE: Allyson WILSON

Please see this invoice attached for immediate payment and other supporting documents.

It is in your best interest to reply to this email with Allyson WILSONS public liability insurance information as requested in first notice to arrange payment in full.

This being the second notice, the first notice stands and was sent on 17th November 2022

No response is still a response.

As their has been no adequate reply to the first notice therefore;

We remind you that if Allyson WILSON's Public Liability insurance is not prepared to pay in full the outstanding lawful invoice, as Allyson WILSON has no corporate immunity she shall be personally liable for the outstanding invoice of $9,690,000 by debt collectors accessing her recoverable assets and this matter will be forwarded to the appropriate agents for retrievable collection within the next 28 days, being on 18th January 2023.

It is in your best interest to get the insurance to take liability for this outstanding invoice.

If this invoice is not paid immediately there is an incurable late fee added of 10% per week added to the total amount outstanding as from 21/12/2022 onward, that being $969,000 per week added to the already outstanding amount, per week if not paid in full or if paid in part the 10% per week shall be applied to that outstanding amount remaining unpaid.

It would be in your best interest to reply to this email this same day to arrange immediate payment

Thank You

Regards

Donna Markwell
